Madison Stalker

2nd Stewardess, "Below Deck Sailing Yacht"

Born and raised in the suburbs of Detroit, Madison spent her childhood as a competitive figure skater. After graduating from Michigan State University, she succumbed to the wanderlust lifestyle and bought a one-way ticket to Fort Lauderdale where she jumped headfirst into the yachting industry. Now with three and a half years of experience under her belt jumping from boat to boat, she is having the time of her life. Madison is full of energy, like the energizer bunny, and is a spastic, sarcastic and hilarious stewardess who is always up to something.
